Gila River Hotels & Casinos Donates $60,000 Worth of Food and Supplies to Gila River Indian Community

Submitted by Teaya VicenteGila River Hotels & Casinos

CHANDLER, Ariz. (March 19, 2020) - On Wednesday, March 18, Gila River Gaming Enterprises, Inc. temporarily closed Gila River Hotels & Casinos – Wild

Horse Pass, Lone Butte and Vee Quiva due to the rapidly spreading Coronavirus (COVID-19). The decision came after heightened concerns for the health and safety of its team members and guests during the pandemic. The closure of all three properties will be in effect until the end of the month.

The day before the temporary closure, Gila River Hotels & Casinos received a delivery of $60,000 worth of perishable food items and made the decision to donate them to Gila River Indian Community (GRIC) elders and families. The Gila team worked around the clock on logistics to quickly expedite the deliveries.

The deliveries were executed in two phases: a dropoff of 20 pallets of water and 98 cases of toilet paper to GRIC's Office of Emergency Management, followed by a donation of $60,000 worth of

Mul-Chu-Tha: Elders and Veterans recognized at Community Day

Christopher Lomahquahu Gila River Indian News

This year's Mul-Chu-Tha recognized three Community members, for their public service and inspiration to others. Community members Marlin Porter (D7), Billy Allen (D5) and Corrine Escalante (D3), were recognized, during the 58th Annual Mul-Chu-Tha Community Day at the Sacaton Fairgrounds on Mar.

Porter is a Vietnam Veteran, who was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1967, where he was assigned to the 1st Battalion, 40th Field Artillery. The 1-40th FA, would see combat in the Vietnam war, in support of various counteroffensive operations, until it returned to stateside in 1969 to Fort Lewis Washington, where it was deactivated.

Before military service, Porter was involved in track and field and cross country in high school, where he earned various accolades. He was named First Team All-State Cross Country in 1963, 1964 and 1965. In the recent spotlight, Porter was inducted into the Phoenix Union High School Dis-

"He's very active in the Community advocating for veterans, in the Pee Posh Veterans Association and with the Phoenix Urban Members Association," said Gov. Stephen Roe Lewis. "He is someone special, as an elder and veteran, he epitomizes the spirit of the award and what that stands for," said Lewis.

"I am honored and proud of the award, that I have received, I am proud of all the accomplishments that I have made in my life," said Porter. He looked back on his athletic accomplishments at Phoenix Union High School.

"When you start a program for yourself in high school, day school, even in kindergarten, keep going, never stop and put your best foot forward. I like to see our young people go places, keep pushing themselves and be proud of it," said Porter.

He said, "I went to school at Phoenix Union, I ran all the way home to 10th street and Indian School road, I never took the bus, it was a warm-up for me. I committed myself to being the best, I wanted to be the best, but most of all I was proud of where I was from, Gila River."

Co-elder of the year awardee, William "Billy" Allen was not able to be present, while recovering from a health condition. "Growing-up we were always playing football, basketball or baseball," said Allen.

"It is an honor to be recognized by your own people. I thank the Mul-Chu-Tha Committee, all of [you] for the honor." said Allen on being awarded co-elder of the year. In 1977, Allen was hired by Casa Grande Union High School, which began a career span of over 31 years at the school, as a cross country coach and assistant track

Brenda Robertson honored at Cultural Circle

"I'm thankful for this honor, I do it to help our little ones, who are growing up in the Community," said Brenda Robertson. She said the role of a cultural teacher is not to her alone, but of parents and grandparents, who possess the same knowledge. "It's a joyous day for me, I can't help, but feel all the strength that I have today," said Robertson.

"She has been coordinating the cultural circle for many years and has been teaching others, even as she served on Community Council," said Antonio "Gohk" Davis, master of ceremonies for the Mul-Chu-Tha cultural circle.

"It's good to be here, to recognize Brenda Robertson, who has helped at the cultural circle for a very long time," Lt. Gov. Robert Stone. "We all have our relationships amongst us, amongst our families, and that is what Brenda represents in the Community."

He said Robertson has put a lot of heart into the cultural circle, to bring in groups from the Community and elsewhere to showcase O'otham traditions.

"I've know her all her life, she always dedicated her life to preserving [our] culture, sharing her knowledge about O'otham traditions to so many," said Gov. Stephen Roe Lewis. "She is at the center of our Community, that is why we are here today, to honor all that she has done to make a difference in people's lives." He said Robertson has also been an advocate for the Community's water rights, as a former District 5 Council Representative.

"They are the ones that inspired me to keep walking that road, and it's because of her influence, it's brought me back to this Himdag," said Harry Antone, who spoke about Robertson's impact on his life.

He said the cultural circle at the Mul-Cha-That fairgrounds, plays a significant role in the teaching of O'otham traditions, a place for all O'otham to gather, to learn about our Himdag. "Outside of the cultural circle You will be rewarded when you put effort into teaching your children, to help them understand our culture, songs and everything we have been given."

Gila River Indian News

Gila River hotels & casinos has opened a new restaurant, "Coverall Deli", now open at their Lone Butte and Vee Quiva locations. Named after the bingo game term where you must cover every number on your card to win, the deli covers all types of cravings, from pizza, chicken sandwiches, ice cream and even Sonoran dogs, hence the name "Coverall."

Coverall Deli also showcases authentic native food. Developed and served by Gila River Indian Community members. Indian tacos, red and green chili popovers are now available for all to enjoy, with both locations open 24/7. Jamie Martinez who is currently the General Manager of the Lone Butte location, contributed his own recipes.

"The reason why we brought back the popovers and the native food, that was a thing the casino did years ago," said Martinez, "I just made it a point to try and bring the popovers and beans and the chili back, you know, stuff that we were used to eating when we were growing up and sharing that with the guests". Martinez is from District 7 and has been with Gila River Hotels & Casinos for over twenty-five Coverall Deli first opened at Lone Butte back in October 2019 and now has a second location open at Vee Quiva, where Carolyn Thompson from District 3, is the General Manager. Thompson has also been with the casino for twenty-five years.

"It's hard, you're not going meet what everybody's expectations are but we tried," said Thompson. "It was a challenge but we worked together" and the response has been great, Thompson notes that popovers are a top seller next to pizza.

"A highlight of my coaching career was in 1981, the Cougars won the AAA State Cross Country Team title," said Allen. On that team, six members from the Community, brought the state cross country title to CGUHS.

Allen said he enjoyed coaching the students, that came through the cross-country team, and the influence he's had on them.

Allen said, in the face of opportunities and challenges, "When you adjust, change or deal with it, you will come out alright."

"He definitely had to sacrifice a lot being a teacher and a coach, this really means a lot to him," said Linda Soto, Allen's daughter. She thanked several others, who supported their father during his time as a coach, educator and even while his health was recovering.

"I just want to thank the people that voted me [this]," said Corrine Escalante, co-elder of the year. She said her life has taken her from state to state, while her husband worked for Lockheed Martin Aerospace Company. Escalante said she was apprehensive

Pi haichu hekaj i:tham vu'voithag- 'Plants that are not used for anything.'

The name for this month translates to 'The sprouting of the Mesquite tree Moon' and called March in English. Due to the numerous weather systems that have passed through our community in recent weeks, the landscape received a significant amount of rainfall. This moisture is a blessing for all the natural plants in our deserts and mountain ranges. Unfortunately, there are other invasive plants that we deem a nuisance in our yards and gardens. Some unwanted plants include those known in O'otham as Makkum je:j, Bi:b'biak, Kothdop, Hoho'ipad, S-ho'ithkam s-puluv, and Tho:lo a'ag. Makkum je:j, which literally means "Caterpillar's Mothers." This is the plant known as Spiderling in Milga:n, and invades our yards, gardens and recognized by its tall erect stems. Bi:b'biak means "to coil or wrap around something" in O'otham and refers to the Field Bindweed, which are seen growing in fields and roadsides. Kothdop is Sacred Datura or Jimsonweed, which emits a noxious odor when cut down and is harmful to humans and animals. Hoho'ipad "lots of spines" is the plant called Filaree or Heronbill. These plants are easily recognized by their spiral seedling, which becomes wrapped around our shoestrings and socks when working in our yards. S-ho'ithkam s-puluv "spiny or thorny clover" is Bur Clover, the burrs of these plants are troublesome to remove from our pet's coats and tails. They are also a nuisance on playing fields and yards. Tho:lo a'ag "bull's horns" is the plant known as Puncture Vine. These plants are the most bothersome, as their spiked seeds can puncture bicycle tires and prick the paws of our pets. We often find them embedded on the sole of our shoes. It is time to go out and get your kavnol "garden hoe" and sikwan "chop" those weeds in our yards before they get too large. Now that extended Spring Break is here, instruct your kids. "Him ko sikwannam heg shai!" (Go chop those weeds!). This month's word match will focus on nuisance plants in yards and gardens. We encourage you to learn these words and use them in your everyday lives.

Sacaton girls basketball team play in championship

Emma HughesGila River Indian News

The Sacaton Middle School girls basketball team competed against Casa Grande Middle School in a championship game held on Tuesday evening, March 10.

Littlefeather Renee Sundust is one of the players on the team and has enjoyed playing with her teammates and getting to know them more. "Since we made it this far, it was a good experience for all of us, we're all excited for everything," said Sundust.

"I'm very proud of my girls, they pushed very hard," said Dora Juan, the girls' basketball coach, who went on to share that the girls are disciplined in both sports and academics.

Unfortunately, the Sacaton Lady Braves fell short in the championship game against the Casa Grande Wildcats, with a final score of 15-22. In an emotional ending, the girls expressed mixed feelings but are still proud of their efforts as a team and support among each other. "We pushed through the whole thing, big crowds, friends, everything," said Juan, "We made it to championship and I'm glad. Go lady braves!"

"This was a hard-fought game to the end! Our Sacton Lady Braves, they never gave up. It was close, the game went back and forth," said Gov. Stephen Roe Lewis who was present at the championship game, along with Lt. Gov. Robert Stone.

MCT Headliner Grupo Metál

Kyle Knox

Gila River Indian News

Headlining the 58th Annual Mul-Chu-Tha Entertainment Stage festivities was Chris Perez, backed by Grupo Metál Saturday, Mar 7. The band performed many classics from Perez's late wife and Tejano music legend Selena Quintanilla-Perez before a packed field for the Community.

The band Grupo Metál consisted of two original members of Selena's band Selena y Los Dinos, guitarist Chirs Perez, and Joe Ojeda, who played the keyboards. Carlito Miranda provided vocals for the group and would round out the trio who made regular appearances with community members throughout the fair.

Kicking off the performance, the band kicked into the disco medley Selena performed at the Astrodome in Austin, TX. Many may remember this medley as it was the opening scene from the 1997 biographical film, Selena. The concert stands filled quickly, and at any given time, one could hear the crowd singing along to the numerous hits performed that night despite most being in the Spanish language.

Another memoreable moment of the night was the closing song, that concluded with a slowed opening version of Selena's iconic song "Como La Flor." This version was reminiscent, again, to another scene from the Selena

After a quick break, the trio of Perez, Ojeda, and Miranda held a meet and greet and signed autographs for everyone. It was a memorable Saturday night for everyone, including the band who closed out the concert sharing their admiration for the Community, it's leaders and the land in which GRIC resides.

History of Earth Day

Department of Environmental Quality Gila River Indian Community

Each year, Earth Day -- April 22 -- marks the anniversary of what many consider the birth of the modern environmental movement in 1970.

At the time, Americans were pumping leaded gas into large automobiles with V8 engines. Industry belched out smoke and sludge with little fear of legal consequences or bad press, and air pollution was commonly accepted as the smell of prosperity.

Although mainstream America remained oblivious to environmental concerns, the stage had been set for change.

The idea for Earth Day came to founder Gaylord Nelson, then a U.S. Senator from Wisconsin, after witnessing the ravages of the 1969 massive oil spill in Santa Barbara, California. Inspired by the student anti-war movement, he realized that if he could infuse that energy with an emerging public consciousness about air and water pollution, it would force environmental protection onto the national political agenda.

As a result, on the 22nd of April, 20 million Americans took to the streets, parks, and auditoriums to demonstrate for a healthy, sustainable environment in massive coast-to-coast rallies. Thousands of colleges and universities organized protests against the deterioration of the environment. Groups that had been fighting against oil spills, polluting factories and power plants, raw sewage, toxic dumps, harmful pesticides. the loss of wilderness and the extinction of wildlife. suddenly realized they shared common values.

Earth Day achieved a rare political alignment with support from Republicans and Democrats, rich and poor, urban and rural Americans. The first Earth Day led to the creation of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the passage of the Clean Air, Clean Water, and Endangered Species Acts.

In 1990, Earth Day went global. It mobilized 200 million people in 141 countries, and lifted environmental issues onto the world stage. Earth Day 1990 gave a huge boost to recycling efforts worldwide, and helped pave the way for the 1992 United Nations Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro. In 1995, it prompted President Bill Clinton to award Senator Nelson the Presidential Medal of Freedom -- the highest honor given to civilians in the United States -- for his role as Earth Day founder.

The fight for a clean environment continues in a climate of increasing urgency as the ravages of climate change become more evident every day.

For a number of years, the Community's Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) has celebrated Earth Day to raise public awareness about environmental issues locally, nationally and globally. We invite you to be a part of Earth Day and learn grams are doing to protect the Community's resources. Please help us achieve what the various DEQ pro- more victories so we can build a clean, healthy and safe environment for generations to come!
